

Google Chrome

- 1 – Open Google Chrome
- 2 – Select Alt F and select Settings
- 3 – Scroll down and select Show advanced settings
- 4 – Scroll down to the System (for older versions of Chrome this may be Network) section and select Open (or Change) proxy settings
- 5 – Select the Advanced tab on the Internet Properties pop up window
- 6 – Scroll down to the Security category, manually check the option box for Use TLS 1.2
- 7 – Select OK
- 8 – Close your browser and restart Google Chrome