

Refugee Integration Yorkshire and Humber Refugee Integration Service

Service referral form

The Refugee Integration Yorkshire & Humber project provides an integration service for new refugees moving-on from the asylum process. We provide advice and support for up to three months on services (such as housing, benefits, health, employment and English skills), working with each refugee on a tailored plan towards independence and integration.

If you would like to sign up someone to the move-on service, please fill in this form and we will get in touch.

Please note the items marked with an asterisk (*) must be completed.
