

Details a registrar will require

Details the registrar will require	What this means	Your notes
Date of death
Place of death	Name of hospital, nursing home, name or number of house, street name, village or town
Name and surname	The name the deceased was known as at the time of death You should find out if they were known by any other name either when they died or previously.
Sex	Male or female
Maiden name of woman who has married	The surname used when she (first) married
Date of birth	If the date of birth is not known we will need an approximate date of birth
Place of birth	Town and county where they were born. If not born in the UK, the country where they were born.
Occupation	Provide as much information as possible about their most recent job. We also need to know if the deceased was retired
Usual address	Name or number of house, street name, village or town and postcode. This information is still needed if they died in a hospital
Details of married partner or late partner Full name Date of birth Occupation	Information about wife, husband or civil partner even if this person is deceased. We will need to know their full name, date of birth, job and if they were retired	