

CCTV privacy notice

The reason we use your data

CCTV (Closed Circuit Television) recordings include data from all cameras managed and monitored by Hull City Council, (including but not limited to; Public Spaces, Body worn, and Highways cameras) are used for the following purposes -

- the safety of the public and staff
- the prevention and detection of crime
- enforcement action where there is evidence of criminal activity/anti-social behaviour
- formal action as required including identification of offenders in criminal or civil investigations and prosecutions in court
- highways monitoring
- targeted surveillance – only where RIPA (Regulations of Investigatory Powers Act) applies
- statistical data may be utilised for intelligence purposes

Why we are allowed to use your data

UK Data Protection Legislation requires the Council to have a reason to collect and use your information. These are as follows -

- Article 6(1)(d) Vital interests: Processing may be necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject. (Such as, the monitoring of Health and Safety incidents or alerting the appropriate emergency services to Health and Safety related matters)
- Article 6(1)(e) - Public task: the processing may be necessary for us to perform a task in the public interest or for our official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law (further details below)
- Article 6(1)(f) – Legitimate Interest: Processing may be necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or the third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data

The legislation of relevance is -

- Section 163 of the Criminal Justice
- Public Order Act 1994
- Crime and Disorder Act 1998
- Protection of Freedoms Act 2012
- Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000
- Highways Act 1980

- common law duty of care

Who we can share your data with

We may share your personal information with the following organisations where appropriate:

- police
- internal and external enforcement agencies
- other council departments
- trading Standards
- fire and Rescue Services
- insurance companies
- solicitors
- government departments
- his Majesty's Court service

Live images may be shared with Humberside Police or Humberside Fire and Rescue where there is a suspected threat to life or potential danger to any person.

How long will we keep your information?

Images captured by CCTV will ordinarily be retained for 31 days. Where images are required for a further purpose, they will be managed in accordance with the Council's document retention rules for that purpose.

To find out more about your information rights and how Hull City Council processes your personal information, please access our main privacy notice.