

Privacy notice - Local Assistance Scheme, Discretionary Housing Payments and Section 17 children's payments

What we use your information for

We use personal information in the administration of our Local Assistance scheme to deliver crisis loans and community care grants for people experiencing financial crisis.

It is also used to facilitate payments under Section 17 of the Children's Act on behalf of Children's and Young Peoples Services

What information we hold and use

The types of information we hold and process includes -

- names, addresses and contact information
- biographical and family information
- dates of birth and national insurance number
- financial information and bank account details
- employer and employment data
- property/tenancy information
- landlord information
- health, welfare and safeguarding information
- appointees/representatives details

Legal basis for processing your personal data

Information is processed in order to comply with our legal obligation and in the performance of a task we carry out in the public interest. Special category data relating to health and welfare is processed only where necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of Union or Member State law or to meet our social care obligations.

Hull City Council's Local Assistance Scheme provides rules for administration of crisis loans and community care grants. Governing legislation for the administration of Section 17 payments is contained within the Children's Act 1989.

How we collect information

Information is collected from -

- applicants and their appointees/representatives
- Children and Young Peoples Services and other departments
- the Department for Work and Pensions
- professionals at other organisations including -
 - landlords
 - GPs
 - health services
 - police

- welfare advisory services

It is collected using -

- forms (online application)
- letters
- email
- telephone contact
- from details held on computer systems

Who we share information with

We do not make your personal information available to companies for marketing purposes. Information is shared with other Council Departments and external organisations where necessary to deliver public functions. It is shared where the law allows and in order to -

- maintain accuracy
- detect fraud
- protect public funds. For example -
 - landlords and welfare agencies signed up to the council's trusted referrer scheme
 - other local authorities
 - support services
 - Pay Point/All Pay

Security and retention of your personal data

Personal data is stored within our secure computer network and offices that have controlled access. It is retained for as long as there is a business and legislative need for it, normally for the current year, plus 7 years following the end of service.

What rights you have

You have –

- a 'Right of Access' to see the information we hold about you
- a 'Right to Rectification' where you believe information we hold about you is incorrect or incomplete
- a 'Right to Restrict processing'
- a 'Right to object' to processing where certain circumstances apply

To exercise these rights you need to contact us as detailed below. For rectification, restriction or objection you need to provide the reasons for your request. Your personal information is not processed for individual automated decision making, or used for profiling of individuals for marketing purposes.

Questions, complaints and comments
